SAN BERNARDINO, CA – Last Saturday, March 19, members of the United Nations of Consciousness (UNOC), a non-profit community based organization, gathered at San Bernardino's Ann Shirrells Park and picked up about ten large garbage bags of trash. The clean up was part of the group's, "Adopt a Community Project." The clean up takes place once per month for two hours from March through November. During that time they pick up trash and debris, do landscaping, clear any safety hazards and meet and greet community residents and share information about their organization.

You are invited to inquire about UNOC and to join in their efforts, one of which is the "Adopt A Community" Project. They provide the clean up tools and supplies, including water and refreshments. Bring your gloves, a hat and some "elbow grease!" For more information about UNOC, call (909) 575-8862

Funeral this Saturday for Percy Pinkney Powerful African-American Political Figure

By McKenzie Jackson/California Black Media

Percy Pinkney

One of the Golden State's most prominent, longstanding and influential African-American political figures will be put to rest on Saturday.

Percy Pinkney, founder of the Black American Political Association of California (BAPAC), died on March 18 of natural causes.

The 79-year-old Los Angeles resident's funeral will be held from 11 a.m. to 12 p.m. at Mount Vernon Memorial Park & Mortuary in Fair Oaks.

A viewing will begin at 9 a.m.

Pinkney founded the 40,000-member BAPAC in 1979 and served as the group's “Pretenders!”

Wolves in Sheep’s Clothing... Pretending to be something they are not.... Invoking the name of Jesus; calling Him, “Lord”, dressing to kill, brandishing angelic smiles, speaking with confidence and eloquence, carrying large bibles, peppering sermons with cries of “Hallelujah!” “Praise the Lord!” and “Amen!” Woe unto you Jesus declares, “Destroying and scattering the sheep of [His] pasture!” Therefore thus says the LORD God of Israel concerning the shepherds who are tending My people: “You have scattered My flock and driven them away, and have not attended to them; behold, I am about to attend to you for the evil of your deeds,” declares the LORD.... [Jeremiah 23:1]. You must know that those who do not faithfully preach and teach only Christ will be cut off, discarded, and cast into the fire. This is God’s verdict. The word from the LORD that the prophet Jeremiah wrote down is extremely clear, straightforward and plain.” Sound the alarm! This message is not for God’s sheep in the pews but for the false prophets, apostles, pastors, teachers, preachers, bishops and priests themselves. It is a woe pronounced on you by the God you say you serve! “By your words you are justified and by your words you will be condemned.” Your words will fall like a sword of judgment upon your own necks. You have prophesied lies to the people. You have taught them after the imaginations of your own hearts and you have not heard from God. You have taught false doctrines. You tell the people that no evil will come upon them; they will be ruptured out before the end time; before bad things start to happen—the fall of the one world system. But that is a lie! Why do you insist on taking Scripture out of context to make it appear as if your lies are God’s truth, instead of obeying [2 Tim 2:15] and expositing Scripture in context, [Nehemiah 8:8]? Woe unto you! (To read more visit www.wssnews.com) state president until his death. BAPAC’s goal since its founding has been to develop, document, and identify the resources necessary to achieve cultural, economic and educational goals of underserved citizens in California. The group has also been committed to the active participation of African Americans in the political process. BAPAC-San Diego Board Chairman and BAPAC Southern Vice President Dr. Willie Blair said Pinkney was a leader who touched many lives for the better. “He would want his legacy to be that,” Blair said. “We utilize his passing as a rally call to make BAPAC stronger and more prolific than ever, and that is exactly what we plan to do. If he knew that he would be smiling down from heaven.” Pinkney’s career in politics began four years before he started the BAPAC, which has grown to 50 chapters around the state. Pinkney led Gov. Jerry Brown’s community relations department for seven years during the California executive’s first governorship, beginning in 1975. The McComb, Miss. native was the first person to join U.S. Sen. Dianne Feinstein’s staff in 1992. Pinkney was the senator’s field representative in Los Angeles, overseeing issues affecting the Black community until he retired in 2014. Feinstein said in a statement she met Pinkney in 1969 when he was working as a social worker in San Francisco. She said her longtime friend was a caring person whose compassion for others never ceased. “No issue was too small or too big for Percy to tackle,” she said. “When Percy became engaged on an issue, he didn’t rest until the problem was solved. Percy represented the best of public service — an unwavering devotion to the people of California and making their lives better. It was an honor to be Percy’s friend and I will miss him dearly.” Pinkney was also a U.S. Army veteran. He earned his undergraduate degree at San Francisco State and a Masters in social work from San Francisco’s Lone Mountain College. The Social-Lites Present the 2016 Beautillion Scholarship Foundation Ball

Donovan Ferguson

Elijah Little

Royce Rodgers

SAN BERNARDINO, CA- “Young Men of Valor from Vision to Reality” is the theme of the 2015/2016 “Knights of the Beautillion Candidacy.” Three young men from Inland Empire schools are vying for the title of “Sir Knight 2016.”

The three senior high school students are Elijah Little, Redlands East Valley High School in Redlands; Donovan Ferguson, Grand Terrace High School in Grand

Terrance; and Royce Rogers, San Bernardino High School in San Bernardino. These young men are currently canvassing the community for businesses and individuals who will support their efforts to become “Sir Knight 2016.”

The Beautillion Scholarship Foundation Program has been sponsored by the Social-Lites of San Bernardino for 49 years. The Beautillion Scholarship program provides an opportunity for outstanding college-bound young men to participate in a series of leadership and organizational activities that prepare them to challenge their future success. The participants have also been exposed to a variety of community, charitable, and social events that began in October 2015 and will conclude at the Beautillion Scholarship Foundation Ball on Saturday, April

WHAT IT DO WITH LUE: Arie Vee

By Lou Dowdy

New female R&B/HIP-HOP artist, “Arie Vee,” making major noise in the Inland Empire is What it Do With The LUE this week.

So the first time I heard this Queen sing was at our 1st Indie Artist Award Show last year. We were short a female singer and were down to the last minute of preparation for our Red Carpet performances. I reached to Aaron Swift, owner of On My Mama Recordz, a local record company based out of the Inland Empire. He sent us his talented artist Arie Vee. I fell in love with her voice. Bringing back that old school R&B vibe, this Queen is the real deal.

Arie Vee, born on December 1, 1988, is a Hip Hop/R&B artist on On My Mama Recordz. Some of her musical influences are Lauryn Hill, Jill Scott and J Cole. Arie Vee began singing in church at the age of 5 and began writing her own music at the age of 13. She shared her first written song at her High School talent show, “I Wanna Be,” and won. Since then she kept writing and wrote her first rap at the age of 18. She has been featured on albums and mixtapes such as, “Dear IE” by Valencia Stacks and “Grandma’s Porch,” by Valencia Stacks and Swift. Her debut song “High School Dance,” which is one of my favorites has been taking the IE by storm and her first album “Lost Child,” was released on February 29, 2016.

Make sure to check her out. You can catch her music in rotation on our show “Listening With LUE Radio,” Sundays from 6 p.m. to 7 p.m. Please tune in with me and Comedian Anthony Stone. Until Next week L’z and keep supporting Indie artist. www.kcaaradio.com 1050 AM/106.5 FM CALL IN at (909) 888-5222 BOOKING: (909) 567-1000.

Legendary Comedienne Marsha Warfield Headlines Funny Lady Hope Flood's 5th Annual Comics Rock! Convention

Five years of funny is no small feat when you are a female in a male dominated industry coordinating an annual comedy fest. In fact, it is literally not a joke. But comedienne Hope Flood has handled it with amazing finesse and style as her Comics Rock! Convention returns, April 26 to 30 at J. Anthony Brown's JSpot Comedy Club, located at 5581 W. Manchester Boulevard in Westchester, CA. Celebrating five fun-infused years, Comics Rock! Convention has become a "must attend" industry event with its presentation of workshops and seminars for aspiring comedians, actors and producers, where they network and showcase their talents. Legendary funny lady Marsha Warfield will headline the festivities moderating the highly anticipated "Comics Rock! Forum" from noon to 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, April 26 at the JSpot Comedy

Club and she will celebrity host a Comedy Night Showcase later that evening, starting at 9:00 p.m. at The Ha Ha Cafe at 4712 Lankershim Blvd. in North Hollywood. The "Comics Rock! Forum" is a special gathering where up and comers have the opportunity to ask questions and seek counsel from veteran talent. This year's highlights also include an "Awards Dinner and Special Tribute to Michael Williams," the founder of the Comedy Act Theater, on Friday, April 29, starting at 7:00 p.m. at the Regency West located at 3339 W. 43rd St. in Los Angeles. An after party will conclude the affair. The "Comics Rock the Court Celebrity Basketball Game" also returns this year on Saturday, April 30, from noon to 4:00 p.m. at the Jesse Owens Park, 9651 S. Western Avenue in Los Angeles. Comedians Luennell ("Katt Williams: American Hustle"), Shang (BET's "Comic View"), Cocoa Butter (Tyler Perry's For Better or Worse) and Paul Mooney's sons, the Mooney Twins (Bravo's "Newlyweds: The First Year") are just a sampling of the talent scheduled to present workshops and seminars. Workshops will include "Comedy 101" offered by Hope Flood; "Writing & Performance Technique" by Greg Dean; "The Art of Stand Up Comedy" with David Arnold and Attorney Antavious Weems' "How to Inc U." For registration and more information regarding sponsorship, vendors or attendance, go to www.comics-rockconvention.com.

BLU Educational Foundation Celebrates Women's History Month with Community Screening of The Souls of Black Girls

SAN BERNARDINO, CA- BLU Educational Foundation (BLU) is inviting the community to join them as they celebrate Women's History Month with a neighborhood screening of the award-winning provocative news documentary, The Souls of Black Girls. The screening, which will be held Thursday, March 24 is free to attend and will include a post-screening panel discussion with thought leaders from the Inland Empire Region.

Produced by rising filmmaker Daphne Valerius, the documentary raises the question of whether or not women of color may be suffering from a self-image disorder as a result of trying to attain the standards of beauty that are celebrated in media images. The candid piece features interviews with young women discussing their self-image as well as social commentary from Rapper/Political Activist Chuck D, Actresses Regina King and Jada Pinkett Smith, PBS Washington Week Moderator Gwen Ifill and Cultural Critic Michaela Angela Davis, among others.

The screening will be held in the Library Viewing Room of San Bernardino Valley College located at 701 South Mt. Vernon Ave. A pre-screening reception featuring spoken-word performances given by students who work closely with Dina Walker, founder of BLU, will begin at 5:40 p.m. The screening will start at 6 p.m. Seating is limited. Reservations may be secured online at Eventbrite. Questions about the screening may be directed to OneNation Media Services at (909) 657.0578.

Said sale will be held, but without covenant or warranty, express or implied, regarding title, possession, condition, or encumbrances, including fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee and of the trusts created by said Deed of Trust, to pay the remaining principal sums of the note(s) secured by said Deed of Trust. The total amount of the unpaid balance of the obligation secured by the property to be sold and reasonable estimated costs, expenses and advances at the time of the initial publication of the Notice of Sale is: $182,741.55 If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee, and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. The beneficiary under said Deed of Trust heretofore executed and delivered to the undersigned a written Declaration of Default and Demand for Sale, and a written Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the county where the real property is located. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (844) 477-7869 or visit this Internet Web site WWW.STOXPOSTING.COM, using the file number assigned to this case 033201-CA. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 888-988-6736 or visit this Internet Web site: saletrack.tdsf.com, using the file number assigned to this case CR15-1139. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the street address or other common designation, if any, shown above. If no street address or other common designation is shown, directions to the location of the property may be obtained by sending a written request to the beneficiary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Sale. Letter to the Editor

Submitted by Stephanie Liggins with the assistance and information corrections and additions of Betty Hempstead.

The Ricks family historian has blessed New Hope Missionary Baptist Church the past several years with mementos of several generations of her family. Annually, the Mission Department has a Black History Display which highlights contributions and accomplishments of our people. Sister Betty Newbern-Hempstead has a quarter of the room to display the relics of her family history.

Raised by her maternal aunt, Rebecca Ricks-Winston, and her husband L. J. Winston (whom she called Mama and Daddy), she has collected many things that belonged to her mother, aunt and uncle - things many would have long since thrown away and forgotten.

In her collection are Western Union telegrams delivering bad news reading, "Your father died suddenly." Another read, "Your mother died yesterday. Funeral on Thursday." If the younger generation never understood why Western Union was dreaded, these notices clearly reveal the reason. There is also a receipt for funeral expenses from 1928 for her uncle's brother in Detroit. One could still afford to die back then and be properly buried for under $300. Certainly, the price might have been considered high then, but looking back and comparing, there is no way that it could have been as exorbitant as the cost is today.

Also among her collection are original N.A.A.C.P. membership cards from 1923. Her beloved uncle, known as Happy Winston in the city of Decatur, Illinois, was very active in the organization and often served as President of the Decatur Branch - so much so that his activities were often published in the Crisis Magazine. In her archive of pictures is three year old Betty with her Uncle Happy Winston among the officers and delegates' First Annual Conference of Branches of Illinois N.A.A.C.P. Meeting at Springfield, Illinois (1934) where the organization began. Yes, she is the only child in the picture, but somehow she is not out of place.

One of the most interesting items in the collection is the high school diploma from "The Colored High School of Tuscumbia, Alabama." Her Aunt Rebecca was able to leave "the country" and stay with a relative in the town of Tuscumbia and graduate from the high school in 1910. That was an extraordinary opportunity during a time in history when many of our people could not attend school at all-- especially not high school. In 1921, the name of the high school was changed to Trenholm High School. One of her school mates was Harper Councill Trenholm who went on to become the fifth president of what was then called Alabama State University - now known as H. Councill Trenholm State Community College at Montgomery, Alabama.

At eighty-five years young, Sister Hempstead has stories of historical events, ways of life and relics that helped shape the way we live and operate today. There was an old toaster, a popcorn popper, a bottle capper, a Remington watch and a grooming kit unlike I have ever seen. But more pertinent than the artifacts, are the people of yesterday that opened a door for our present opportunities. We must learn of them. We must know who they are and we must know who we are. Next year, when New Hope's Mission Ministry has the Black History Display, make your way to see it and be enlightened and inspired-- and ask Sister Hempstead to tell you a bit about her family.
