U.S. Rep. Kamlager-Dove Leads Discussion on Improving Black Student Learning, Test Scores

By Lila Brown | California Black Media

On April 8, U.S. Congressman Sydney Kamlager-Dove (D-CA-37) moderated a roundtable focused on Los Angeles Unified School District's (LAUSD) strategies to improve Black student performance in classrooms.

Kamlager-Dove, who represents a district that covers parts of Los Angeles County, hopes that ideas shared at the event can be incorporated into models that can impact other regions across California, where Black students continue to fall behind their peers of other races and ethnicities.

Discussions at the event centered on LAUSD's Black Student Achievement Plan (BSAP) and other educational initiatives aimed at enhancing learning and boosting test scores.

"The Black Student Achievement Plan is unique in that it takes a community-centered approach to uplifting Black students," said Kamlager-Dove during the event held at John Muir Middle School in Los lar Eclipse, but ain't nobody preparing for Christ Return. That's a darn shame!

Jesus calls us to watch for his return. Why? "For we know neither the day nor the hour" [Matthew 25:13]. I admonish you to beware of the warning "As A Thief in the Night" [1 Thessalonians 5:2] because unlike man who gives us a date when they have things planned... the Lord's return will be surprising to us [2 Peter 3:7-12] so prepare now! Make your election sure because if you are caught unprepared when Christ returns, you are going to live with regret for the rest of your life and you will have no one but yourself to blame, because God's Word has already given you such ample warning that His coming will take place unexpectedly. Please do not let that warning go unheeded. Act upon it now!

For the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything done in it will be laid bare. [Matthews 24:35; 2 Pet. 3:10; Rev. 20:11].

Please be ready for His return! For the great day of the Lord is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, [Zephaniah 1:14].

Ain't nobody preparing for Christ Return. That's a darn shame! Jesus Christ is coming back and according to [1 Corinthians 7:29] the appointed time has grown very short. That stands as both a warning and a promise. Why are you not preparing for Christ return? Christ's return is imminent, and his timeline makes it urgent. And given the urgency of the time, how then shall we live? I tell you, everybody prepared for the So-the high infant mortality among Black women.

Opposing that decision last week, a person claiming to be a member of two racist, White Supremacist organizations sent a letter to the office of Assemblymember Lori D. Wilson (D-Suisun City).

Wilson, Chair of the California Legislative Black Caucus (CLBC), is the author of AB 2319.

"I submit this letter in strong and vehement opposition of AB 2319," the letter obtained by California Black Media stated. "We believe that every non-White birth in this state is a drain on the taxpayers and that any miscarriage or complication that results in death or defect of the mother, or the child, is God's way of ensuring population control among Blacks and other minorities."

Wilson said she and her staff were shocked by the raw hatred expressed in the letter.

"The recent racist opposition to our efforts to secure equitable health care for every Californian is not only offensive but deeply concerning," stated Wilson.

Parks and Tree Canopy Are a Matter of Life and Death in Los Angeles

By Alfredo Gonzalez and Jon Christensen | Ethnic Media Services

Parks and tree canopy are literally a matter of life and death in Los Angeles. This is especially true in the middle of an extreme summer heat wave. A recent UCLA study quantified the benefit.

Researchers found that if the areas of Los Angeles County that currently have below average tree canopy cover and park acreage were just brought up to the average, Angelenos alive today would enjoy close to 1 million years of additional life expectancy. And that's controlling for all other factors, such as household income and access to healthcare.

Think about that for a minute. The benefit is especially poignant for young children growing up in L.A.'s low-income, park-poor, communities of color. A child born in Southeast Los Angeles is likely to die 10 years before a child born on the Westside. Not all of that is due to the lack of park space and tree canopy. But we can do something about parks and trees.

Los Angeles is making important strides to rectify the great disparities in green space, just not fast enough. There are two stumbling blocks. They are related. And both can be solved.

The first is funding. The second is the capacity of municipal governments to absorb funding and implement projects.

In the city of Los Angeles, Mayor Karen Bass increased the Department of Recreation and Parks budget from $318 million this fiscal year to $337 million next year. That's a modest 6% increase and not nearly enough to make a dent in the city's needs.

First District Supervisor Paul Cook Applauds SBCTA Approval of $762,899 Contract for State Route 247/62 Emergency Bypass Study

SAN BERNARDINO, CA – San Bernardino County First District Supervisor Paul Cook today applauded the San Bernardino County Transportation Authority (SBCTA) General Policy Committee's approval of a $762,899 contract with WSP USA, Inc. for the State Route 247/62 Emergency Bypass Study. The Committee voted on the measure on April 10.

"For years, I've been raising concerns about the lack of a viable emergency plan for the Cajon Pass," said Supervisor Cook. "Whether it's a major earthquake, wildfire, or another disaster, a shutdown of I-15 could isolate our First District communities. I've been a strong advocate for a backup plan, and this study is a critical step forward."

The approval comes after former Assemblymember Thurston "Smitty" Smith secured $1 million in the 2022 state budget for a Cajon Pass I-15 Bypass Study. The focus of this project is to assess the feasibility of utilizing State Routes 247 and 62 as an alternative route during emergencies that force the closure of the Cajon Pass.

"The State Route 247/62 Emergency Bypass Study will explore how to best utilize these existing roadways as a more viable alternative to I-15 during emergencies," Supervisor Cook continued. "The project's goal is to minimize the negative impacts of an extended I-15 closure. This includes examining operational strategies to maintain traffic flow for essential services like freight transport, personal travel, and emergency response teams."

The study will also factor in existing traffic management plans developed by law enforcement, transportation agencies, and emergency service providers for situations involving I-15 closures and major incidents.

The contract, upon approval by the full SBCTA Board in May, will officially greenlight the project.

San Bernardino County Signs Historic Agreement to Combat College Student Hunger

SAN BERNARDINO, CA--- On April 12, a significant collaboration between the San Bernardino Community College District (SBCCD), California State University, San Bernardino (CSUSB), and the County of San Bernardino was formalized to combat student hunger. This collaboration is designed to expedite the qualification process for CalFresh, a critical federal aid program that provides monthly assistance for low-income individuals to purchase nutritious food.

Valley College, Crafton Hills College, and CSUSB to share specific financial information from student's FAFSA applications with the San Bernardino County Transitional Assistance Department which manage CalFresh, with the consent of the students.

The urgency of this initiative is highlighted by findings from the California Student Aid Commission, which estimates that nearly 181,000 college students in Riverside and San Bernardino counties are at risk of facing hunger without CalFresh support. San Bernardino County Supervisor Joe Baca, Jr. reflected on his connection to the cause, stating, "As someone who has studied at both Valley College and CSUSB, I know the impact of food insecurity first-hand. With today's economic pressures and high costs, addressing student hunger is more crucial than ever. This partnership is about removing barriers to education by ensuring no student goes hungry."

SBCCD Chancellor Diana Z. Rodriguez emphasized the broader impact, noting, "Investing in student nutrition is investing in our local economy. En-

Legislature Advances, Renumbers, Sen. Bradford's Reparation Freedmen's Agency Bill

By Antonio Ray Harvey, Maxim Elramsisy, Lila Brown and Joe W. Bowers Jr. | California Black Media

On April 9, the California Senate Judiciary Committee voted 8-1 to advance Sen. Steven Bradford's reparation legislation, Senate Bill (SB) 1403, or the "California American Freedman Affairs Agency" bill.

The bill, formerly entitled SB 490, moves on to the Committee on Governmental Organization. SB 1403 would create a new state agency responsible for the administration and oversight of reparations as determined by the Legislature and Governor.

Creation of the agency is one of more than 115 recommendations the nine-member California reparations task force included in its final report. The bill would require the agency to determine how an individual's status as a descendant of an enslaved person in the United States would be confirmed.

The SB 1403 would require proof of an "individual's descendant status" to be a qualifying criterion for benefits authorized by the state for descendants, as stated in the bill's language. To reach these goals, SB 1403 would mandate the agency to be comprised of a Genealogy Office and an Office of Legal Affairs.

In 2020, California established the first-in-the-nation task force to study reparations for African Americans.

Los Angeles-based attorney Kamilah Moore, the chairperson of the task force during its two-year study, was at the State Capitol to address the members

Black Californians:

Progress, Persisting Racial Gap Highlighted at State of Black California Conference

By Antonio Ray Harvey, Maxim Elramsisy, Lila Brown and Joe W. Bowers Jr. | California Black Media

The 2024 State of Black California Conference, held at UCLA on April 13, brought together about 200 policymakers, advocates, and community members to discuss the challenges and opportunities facing Black Californians.

A key focus of the conference convened by The Black Policy Project, an initiative of the UCLA Ralph J. Bunche Center for African American Studies, along with the California Legislative Black Caucus (CLBC) was the launch of the 2024 State of Black California report - Assessing 20 Years of Black Progress in the Golden State written by the Center for the CLBC.

The attendees were welcomed by UCLA Chancellor Dr. Gene D. Block, Dr. Lorrie Frasure, Director, UCLA Ralph J. Bunche Center for African American Studies, and CLBC Chair Assemblymember Lori Wilson (D-Suisun City).

The report, presented by Dr. Michael Stoll, Professor & Faculty Director of the Black Policy Project, paints a complex picture: While Black Californians have seen modest socioeconomic gains over the past two decades, a significant racial gap compared to White residents persists. The 2024 report builds on the original State of Black California report published in 2007. Report Details Mixed Progress The report utilizes an "Equality Index" to show a 21.7% improvement in Black Californians' outcomes. However, this progress is overshadowed by the fact that Black Californians still have the lowest index score among all racial groups, lagging 30% behind White Californians.

There were some bright spots. Education showed the most significant improvement, likely due to policies that expanded access to universities. Criminal justice reforms also had a positive impact.

Challenges Remain, Particularly Housing A concerning trend highlighted in the report is the shrinking Black population in California, down from 2.2 million to 2.1 million. High housing costs are pushing Black residents out of urban centers, with only the Inland Empire and Sacramento showing growth. Homeownership among Black Californians has also declined, while rents have risen significantly.

Conference Tackles Pressing Issues The conference addressed these challenges through a series of panel discussions. Participants in the panels included members of the CLBC, local and state officials, community leaders, and academics. Topics included:

- Community solutions to Los Angeles' challenges, featuring local leaders.

- A conversation with Los Angeles City Mayor Karen Bass on her efforts to promote equity.
- The intersection of artificial intelligence and its impact on Black Californians.
- Legislative solutions with members of the California Legislative Black Caucus (CLBC).
- California's leadership in reparations and its potential for national reconciliation. Secretary of State, Dr. Shirley We-
